

Important information

You should consult your physician as soon as you plan to become pregnant

You must consult a doctor before performing any surgeries or dental-operations

A doctor should be consulted immediately if any of the following symptoms occur

«Bleeding from the gums or mouth

+Cough is full of blood

«Stool turns black. Heavy menstruation -bleeding unusual

«Non-stop bleeding from wounds

«Easy bruising

«Sudden severe headache

Finally, you should be fully aware of the answers to the following questions

«Why should you take Marevan?

+How long should Marevan be taken?

«What is the dose of Marevan?

«What is the optimal blood fluidity number?

«What is the date of the next analysis?

«What are the signs of high liquidity?

'The liquidity ratio is monitored in the outpatient clinics where a prior appointment is set on the following days (Saturday - Monday - Wednesday - Thursday) of every week

In Emergency Please

Call

0972391100

or go directly to the nearest hospital, if you have any bleeding

What is Marevan?

It is an anticoagulant drug that prevents blood clots from forming

Marevan does not dissolve previously formed clots, but it prevents the formation of new clots

Marevan is used in heart diseases for the following cases

Atrial fibrillation - irregular heartbeat

Change of Valves

in case of a metal valve, Marevan will be taken throughout the course of life to avoid clots or a tissue valve, in this case, it takes 2 months